namely BT MECH 162, BT MECH 184, BT MECH 12 into the environment for a period of three years from April 2002 to March 2005. The conditions inter-alia include plantation of a non Bt. refuge around the periphery of the Bt. fields, monitoring the susceptibility of bollworms to Bt. gene vis-a-vis baseline susceptibility data, assessing the possible impacts on non-target insects and crops, and undertaking an awareness and education programme for farmers. The three approved hybrid varieties are presently under cultivation in six States namely Maharashtra, Gujarat, Madhya Pradesh, Karnataka, Andhra Pradesh and Tamil Nadu. Some of the areas where these hybride varieties are being cultivated have recently been monitored by the Committees constituted by this Ministry for each State. The Committees have made comprehensive and objective assessment of the agronomical benefits as well as environmental of the Bt. Cotton in the field and have found them to be performing satisfactorily.
